A message for you... from 1953

(Today, John Jones is just an average American, wrestling with all the doubts and worries and problems that beset every one of us right now. But let's skip ahead 10 years. Let's look at John Jones then—and listen to him . . .)

SOMETIMES I feel so good it almost scares me.

"This house—I wouldn't swap a shingle off its roof for any other house on earth. This little valley, with the pond down in the hollow at the back, is the spot I like best in all the world.

"And they're mine. I own 'em. Nobody can take 'em away from me.

"I've got a little money coming in, regularly. Not much—but enough. And I tell you, when you can go to bed every night with nothing on your mind except the fun you're going to have tomorrow—that's as near Heaven as a man gets on this earth!

"It wasn't always so.

"Back in '43—that was our second year of war, when we were really getting into it—I needed cash. Taxes were tough, and then Ellen got sick. Like almost everybody else, I was buying War Bonds through the Payroll Plan—and I figured on cashing some of them in. But sick as she was, it was Ellen who talked me out of it.

"'Don't do it, John!' she said. 'Please don't! For the first time in our lives, we're really saving money. It's wonderful to know that every single payday we have more money put aside! John, if we can only keep up this saving, think what it can mean! Maybe someday you won't have to work. Maybe we can own a home. And oh, how good it would feel to know that we need never worry about money when we're old!'

"Well, even after she got better, I stayed away from the weekly poker game—quit dropping a little cash at the hot spots now and then—gave up some of the things a man feels he has a right to. We made clothes do—cut out fancy foods. We didn't have as much fun for a while but we paid our taxes and the doctor and—we didn't touch the War Bonds.

"We didn't touch the War Bonds then, or any other time. And I know this: The world wouldn't be such a swell place today if we had!"

HOMECOMING PLANS

Alma College will be here October 30 for our Annual Homecoming game. This was assured this week in a special communication to Athletic Director Harold Anderson.

The Marines and Sailors get the week off in a special leave but the lads who don Falcon grid togs have agreed to cut their leaves short in order to be back for the game and the student body is mighty grateful to them for their fine spirit.

Homecoming this year will be a stream-lined affair. There will be no schedule for Friday evening as in the past. The program will be confined to a single day, Saturday, when the Homecoming Queen will reign, the football game will be played and homecomers will gather in the various homes or sorority and fraternity houses which are open, for informal reunions.

Transportation limitations will doubtless prevent persons from traveling any great distances and so homecoming will be more of a local affair, confined to those who are within a short ride of the campus.

But there will be a few folks back and there may be some lads in uniform back on the old campus, so the homecoming spirit will be noticeable just the same.

It will be the final home game of the season.

CAGE DRILL STARTS

Bowling Green State is going to have a basketball team. Athletic Director Harold Anderson, who coaches the cagers, has been working with about 40 men this week and expects to cut the squad before serious drill is started after Nov. 1.

Veterans of the squad are few this season. Big Sid Otten, sophomore from Bellefontaine,

HELLO BUNKER HILL

The team that Bowling Green meets today boasts a number of big time men and is an outfit that probably will give the Falcons a better game than they have had for many weeks, probably since the Ohio Wesleyan tilt.

The Bunker Hill Naval Air Base, at Peru, Indiana, bring to this gridiron the first All-American star to ever cavort on the local turf. He is Mal Kutner, former star end of the University of Texas, later a top-flight star for the Iowa Seahawks and a chief selection in the all-star game against the Washington Redskins. Though he made his name at end, he will be in the backfield against the Falcons.

Others who have played first class ball are halfback Bill McLaughlin of Georgetown, Jim Kubal of Butler, Jim Rees of Ohio State, Bill Baumgardner of Minnesota, Bob Gordon of North Carolina, George Schoulda of Illinois and many others.

The team is not as hefty as the one which took a lacing at the hands of Bee Gee last Saturday, but will outweigh Bowling Green. At the same time they have plenty of speed. Kutner has done the 100 yards in 9.8 seconds.

Last week the Bunker Hill team trounced a fine Notre Dame ROTC team 44 to 6. The week before they edged Patterson Field 9 to 6 in their opener. They were strengthened by some very fine gridders for that Irish game and have them again to face Bowling Green today.

who skims clouds at 6 ft. 11 in. is on hand again for some sensational play and Joe Siegforth, sharp-shooting forward from Akron, has also reported. Ron Waugh, of B.G., will be out after football is finished.

Coach Anderson is arranging a complete schedule, which he will announce shortly.

BOWLING GREEN'S WAR TIME GRIDIRON SQUAD

Coaching under war-time conditions cannot be compared with the way that teams are handled in peacetime but here at Bowling Green State University, Coach Robert H. Whittaker continues to display that "Whittaker Magic" which has stamped him as one of the best coaches in the state of Ohio.

This team mate of Ohio State's famous coach, Paul Brown, has developed a team which has attracted the eyes of the state to the Falcon aerie.

This year's squad, composed mainly of United States Marine V-12 students with a sprinkling of Navy V-12's and civilians, is pictured above. They are:

Second row—Harris, Warrick, Jeremiah, Baxter, C. Jones, Mergenthal, Zahn, Carey, Whelan, Pollock, Minnick, Boughton, Brown, Stewart.

Third row—Coach Robert H. Whittaker, Getz, Daum, Waugh, Engelland, Robinson, Brodston, Mohr, Capt. Bordner, Rowe, Socolofsky, Hargas, Assistant Coach George Muellich.

TWO ACES IN OUR COACHING STAFF

COACH ROBERT H. WHITTAKER

As head coach of football and track Robert H. Whittaker is making a great record at Bowling Green State University just as he did at Sandusky high school. "Bob" has lost only three games on the gridiron since coming to B. G.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR HAROLD ANDERSON

Bowling Green State University's basketball is looking up under the guidance of Coach Anderson. Last year's team made a fine record in his first season at the helm here. This year "Andy" expects a fair quint.

A WORLD TITLE AT STAKE

The Falcons may carry on in battles against their friendly foes in the good old American way today, a privilege that few other countries may now enjoy, but to protect our right to continue to live our lives as we wish, we as Americans must fight a bigger and more serious foe.

We, who sit on the sidelines must buy our tickets and buy them again and again in the form of War Bonds and Stamps.

Make sure that your Army and Navy wins the biggest Victory in the world. Buy Bonds. This Bank can provide you with them at any time.

FOOTBALL IN OHIO

In the reduced football program among Ohio Colleges this year, Bowling Green State University rates a high place on the basis of newspaper standings. The Falcons are rated at the top of the table at the present time although any championship that might come at the conclusion of the campaign will be mythical.

Ohio usually has close to 30 college teams in peacetimes but this year only 11 institutions, including Ohio State, have football clubs.

The standings at the close of last week's games:

	Won	Lt.	Td.	Pt.	O.P.
Bowling Green	4	0	0	125	7
Otterbein	1	0	0	25	6
Miami	3	0	1	131	31
Oberlin	2	0	1	52	12
Baldwin-Wallace	3	1	0	63	33
Wooster	1	2	0	35	59
Case	1	2	0	48	58
Rio Grande	1	2	0	34	61
Ohio Wesleyan	1	3	0	46	68
Xavier	0	3	0	6	160

Games this week:

Bunker Hill at Bowling Green
 Western Michigan at Miami
 Case at Wooster
 Oberlin at Ohio Wesleyan
 West Virginia Tech at Otterbein
 Patterson Field vs. Bowman Field
 Rio Grande at Muskingum

Teamwork wins battles, too!

TANKS, planes, paratroopers, infantry—it takes all, working in perfect coordination, to win battles today. Just as on the football field, it's teamwork that counts.

There is one big difference. In football, you leave the winning to others. In war, you are as much a part of the teamwork needed for Victory as pilots, bombardiers, tank crews, and foot soldiers.

Your job is to buy War Bonds, and then more War Bonds—to support our boys with the finest equipment money can buy. When you invest in War Bonds regularly every pay day—not the least, but the most you can—that is teamwork.

Remember our boys over there are counting on you to do your part. Remember, too, your War Bonds work two ways. They help win the war and provide for the peace by returning (in the case of E Bonds) $4 for $3 at maturity. This is the voluntary American way to raise the huge sums needed for Victory. Every shot—every bond—counts. Do your part—now. Teamwork wins!
